"Creating A Community Of Involvement And Evangelization"

Served by the Augustinian Friars since 1796

St. Augustine parish is an open, diverse, and active Roman Catholic community rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ and founded in the Augustinian Tradition. We invite all to participate in our worship, service to others, and our faith development. These endeavors allow us to grow in the knowledge of God present in ourselves and each other. Our community joyfully welcomes all who are searching for a spiritual center to call home.

American Catholic Historical Society — 263 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia 19106

Catholic History Lecture....On Sunday, May 5 at 2:00 PM, Ryan Halloran will speak on the history of Catholic high school athletics in Philadelphia at the American Catholic Historical Society.

Neo-Thomism on the Team: Monsignor John J. Bonner used athletic programs to cultivate neo-Thomistic values among Catholic school students in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Athletic programs were more crucial to shaping a Catholic intellectual outlook than previously recognized.

Ryan J. Halloran is a PhD candidate in Religion at Temple University, where his research focuses on the field of religions and sports.

Please RSVP with your name and number of attendees by May 2 to: info@amchs.org
