"Creating A Community Of Involvement And Evangelization"

Served by the Augustinian Friars since 1796

St. Augustine parish is an open, diverse, and active Roman Catholic community rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ and founded in the Augustinian Tradition. We invite all to participate in our worship, service to others, and our faith development. These endeavors allow us to grow in the knowledge of God present in ourselves and each other. Our community joyfully welcomes all who are searching for a spiritual center to call home.

Freedom Under Grace

Faith Enrichment at the National Shrine of Saint Rita of Cascia
Monday, July 16, 6:30pm-8pm

Fr. Joe Farrell, O.S.A., Vicar General of the worldwide Augustinian Order and native Philadelphian, will speak about Freedom Under Grace. We all know July as a time to celebrate our independence. Come learn about what it is to celebrate our free will under the grace of God! We'll start the evening with fellowship, wine, and cheese in the breeze-way, before the talk begins at 7pm in the Lower Shrine.

Free parking in our lot at the corner of Broad and Ellsworth, and easy access via the Broad Street Line from the Ellsworth/Federal stop.

Catholic Gift Shop

Give Catholic gifts to celebrate birthdays, sacraments, or friendship! The National Shrine of Saint Rita of Cascia store sells rosaries, medals, cards, gifts, books, and much more. Visit the vintage section for one-of-a-kind gifts. Open Monday-Friday 11 am-4 pm, Saturday 11am-5pm. 1166 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA at Broad and Ellsworth.

A word from Fr. Bill.....

To the "Good People" of St. Augustine Parish:

Last week, Brother Jacob published the results of the recent Gala held at the Pavilion of Villanova University, an event sponsored by the University President, Father Peter Donohue. If you were able to attend the Gala, you know that the spirit of hospitality that is our parish was made visible by the joy and smiles of the celebratory evening. The parish is indebted to generosity of the University, our sponsors and all who purchased tickets for the evening.

This weekend will complete my tenth week at St. Augustine a small dot on my curriculum vitae but a major chapter in my priestly ministry. What amazes me is not the size of the parish community - relatively small - but the special and unique spirit of each of you. The parishioners have intentionally selected to be here in giving praise and thanksgiving for the blessings in their lives, our lives. Intentionality translates into your love of the parish. Father Bill Waters believed that you the parishioners would support a capital campaign meaning that the majority of parishioners would make a financial sacrifice to preserve this beautiful and historic building. I have often thought of what earlier generations have done to build and support our gathering places, our churches. We have all witnessed changes in the present time when churches have been twined with another parish or closed due to changes in demographics. Your presence at the liturgies, financial support, and ministerial involvement have created an atmosphere that is most welcoming. It has been a special joy for me to join with you and the rich Augustinian heritage that is St. Augustine Parish. Your presence is the greatest gift for me and I thank you for that presence.

This weekend is the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. Our house of worship, your faith and your voices give life to the gifts given to us in this Feast. We are the recipients of God's Love made visible in the Bread and Wine which becomes Christ's presence as we gather and share as sisters and brothers a Meal of Thanksgiving. We are a blessed community. My blessing is being with you in community.

Feast of Corpus Christi: Thursday after Trinity Sunday; 60 days after Easter, or the Sunday immediately following this. The Feast of Corpus Christi (Latin for Body of Christ) is a Latin Rite liturgical solemnity celebrating the reality of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ Son of God in the Eucharist.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

John 6:51

MASS INTENTIONS

There are still Masses available until the end of 2019 for your Mass special intentions.

A Mass can be celebrated to remember a loved one, a special intention, a birthday, thanksgiving or an anniversary. Contact the Parish Office to schedule a Mass.
